INACTIVE METER POLICY

1. Water meters are the property of Adams County Regional Water District. Payment for a water meter installation is a non-refundable fee for meter placement.
2. Water meters shall be defined as active when installed and will incur a monthly bill whether water is used or not.
3. Any meter remaining inactive for less than 5 years will require payment of a reconnect fee prior to reconnection of service.
4. Any meter remaining inactive for 5 – 9 years will require payment of a reconnect fee plus time and materials prior to reconnection of service.
5. Water meters remaining inactive for 10 years or more shall be considered a dead tap. Water meters that have been inactive for 10 years or more will incur the cost of a new meter installation fee if request is made for reinstallation. Installation fee will be per current rates for a New Tap.
